SOUTH BRANDON FARMERS' TUTE.

Significant Resolutions Passed.

The meeting of the South Brandon Farmers' Institute was held in Rickers Hall on Saturday afternoon. There was a large attendance, the President John Jabez Elliott presided.

After the usual routine, by-laws and rules of order were submitted and adopted. The chairman of the committee to which had been referred the preparation of a series of resolutions on the defects in the law regarding exemptions begs to report as follows:—

"Whereas the grievous burdens laid upon the farmers of Manitoba by the high customs tariff and the exorbitant freight rates charged by the railways for the transportation of his products to the markets of the east, together with the low price of wheat, have brought very many faces to face with actual want.

"And whereas the Provincial exemption act has failed in its intent and purpose, namely, to secure the farmer the ability to earn money to pay his debts, many who were over persuaded to mortgage their exempted goods and chattels, have had these mortgages foreclosed and the stock grain and implements necessary to work their farms sold at a mere fraction of their cost, and have no alternative but to throw up their farms and leave the country.

"And whereas it is the bounden duty of the government and legislature to remedy all grievances.

It is therefore resolved by this meeting of the South Brandon Farmers' Institute that the law on exemptions ought to be amended so as to make illegal any mortgage of the goods and chattels exempt by law, and otherwise to make the said exemption law secure to the farmer intact and means to work his farm, maintain his family and pay his debts.

"And it is further resolved that the said exemption act ought to be amended in the following particulars:—
Provisions for family and feed for stock sufficient to keep them eleven months ought to be exempt.

Five horses and four cows and seed for the growing of 100 acres of grain ought also to be exempt from seizure by the judgment creditor.

The question was thoroughly discussed and on motion the committee was appointed, Messrs. Arkell, Naismith, Johnston, Fowler, Bailey, King, H. C. Graham, M. P. P., and others taking part in the debate.

On motion the whole meeting voted on the resolutions which were carried unanimously.

LEGAL AMENDMENTS.

The chairman of the committee then submitted the following resolutions:—
Whereas the costs of the administration of the law for the collection of debts are exorbitant, and impose a grievous wrong upon a class already weighed down with an insupportable burden of debt.

"And whereas the distances apart of the sittings of the county courts are held are not convenient to the general public and entail great and needless expenses upon those who have to attend them from distant points.

"And whereas the statutory counsel fee is wrong and pernicious, and offers a standing premium to lawyers to enter suits in the courts.

"And where as the bailiff's mileage fee is exorbitant.

"And whereas the transference of judgments from the county courts to the Queen's Bench is unnecessary and adds to the costs of a suit without benefiting anyone but the lawyers.

"And whereas the administration of the law is such that the legal profession is unduly fostered and protected at the cost of the people.

"And whereas the endowing of a class with special powers and privileges to fix their own fees and otherwise to conserve their own interests at the cost of the people directly antagonistic to the spirit of our free institutions, under which all classes ought to stand on a plain of perfect equality before the law.

"And whereas the law as judgment summonses is harsh in its operation and is contrary to the spirit of enlightened legislation on the subject.

"And whereas the holding of sittings of the courts in seedtime and harvest time entails serious loss and inconvenience to farmers, who cannot afford to lose one hour's work at these seasons of the year.

It is therefore resolved:—

(1) That the county courts act, and other acts relating to debtor and creditor ought to be amended in the following respects:—

(1) That the statutory counsel fee ought to be abolished.

(2) That clerks, sheriffs and bailiffs ought to be paid by a fixed salary, and not by fees.

(3) That the power of transfer judgments from county courts to the Queen's Bench ought to be annulled.

(4) That the act incorporating the law society ought to be repealed or amended so as to place farmers, merchants and all classes of the community on an equal with the lawyers before the law.

(5) That for the convenience of the people courts of the first resort ought to be established at convenient distances apart, presided over by resident Justices of the Peace duly qualified and specially appointed, who should have power to decide cases of $100 and under, no lawyer to plead in such courts.

(6) That all lawyers fees ought to be statutory.

(7) That the sittings of all courts be held at such times as will not interfere with seedtime and harvest times.

The resolutions were debated at great length and passed unanimously.

The following resolution was also passed by a large majority.

Resolved that all sheriffs and sheriffs officers and all county court officials, with the exception of Judges, be appointed by the different municipalities in the judicial district in which they act.

A motion was passed directing the secretary to forward copies of these resolutions to the Attorney General, H. C. Graham, M. P. P., and the Winnipeg and Brandon papers. Also to all the Farmers' Institutes in the province asking them to take action thereon.

The meeting then adjourned.

Provincial and Territorial.

Mr. Doyle, of Beulah, is at Ottawa looking for the extension of the G. N. W. C. R. R. through that village.

The Glenboro grist mill will soon be in running order.

The Federal parliament will meet on the 15th of February.

The investigation into the cause of the death of the late Mr. Thomas Routledge, completely exonerates the hospital authorities from carelessness in the matter. He occupied a private ward and it was not considered by his own physician that he required special attendance, as he was steadily improving.

A young man named Lyons was brought into the general hospital this week suffering severely from frozen hands and frozen feet. The physicians did all in their power to save the affected members, but it was too late, and yesterday it was found necessary to amputate both hands and both feet. The unfortunate person is about 30 years of age, and is well connected in the old country. He has been engaged in farming near Cunningham Manor and his present affliction was due to his losing his way one night in a blinding snowstorm. He was brought in from the west on Wednesday.—Free Press.

"Paddy Flynn," a horse owned by Bell & Robertson, Portage la Prairie, has been winning laurels on the American turf. Last Friday the animal won the five-furlong race at the St. Louis meet, when there were eight starters.

Robert McKenzie, the Indian trader of Mossy River, was found dead recently. His health had been greatly impaired of late.

The church of England at McGregor is arranging a concert, to be given on the evening of January 19, in aid of the building fund of the congregation.

The recital and concert in aid of the English church which took place at Lyons' Hall last evening was a great success, nearly every seat in the hall being filled. Miss Huckle opened the concert by a piano solo when Miss Ella Swanton was introduced and after her first recital every one in the audience acknowledged at once that she is an artist of no mean order. Her playing was graceful and every delineation perfect. Miss Barrett sang several songs and as usual received well deserved applause. Miss Lee, of Brandon, has a very sweet voice and also received an encore for her song. The piano and mandolin duet by Miss Blomfield and Mr. Rutherford was well rendered, also the Scotch airs on the piano by Mr. Grant. Miss Blomfield played the accompaniments for Miss Swanton and Miss Barrett, and Mr. Clarke for Miss Lee. The concert was without doubt the best we have held in Carberry and Mr. Williams received the thanks of all those present for his trouble in getting it up.

Rounthwaite Notes.

November and December, 1893.

We have now entered upon our second volume. Owing to the financial stringency we must ask our readers to pay up, at once, 50 cents please—then you will be straight with the magazine for a year.

It will cost about 40.00 to provide for the Magazine until November 1894, but if you, kind reader, will give or send your 50 cents to the Rev. H. Dransfield at once, we will be out of debt, and you will get a dollar Magazine for 50 cents.

A GOOD MAN. Mr. Alfred Birch is now incumbent warden and treasurer. We are sure this appointment will be extremely popular, but show your appreciation by paying your subscription promptly. Don't give the warden the unnecessary trouble of going around, and dunning you. Read the note on page 1.

On Sunday, Oct. 29th, the Rev. George Rodgers, General Missionary, visited the parish and preached on behalf of the Mission Fund at Wawanesa, Nesbit and Rounthwaite. We are pleased to know that most of the pledge cards have been redeemed. Mrs. Arkell kindly acted as collector for Wawanesa; Miss Flewer and Miss Press for Nesbit; and Mrs. Colquhoun for Rounthwaite.

On Sunday, November 19th, His Grace, the Lord Archbishop of Rupert's Land, and Primate of all Canada, visited this parish, a confirmation service was held at Wawanesa in the morning, in the Presbyterian church, when Mr. Ferris, Mrs. Arkell, Stella Ingram, George Ingram and Isaac Ingram received the apostolic rite of "Laying on of Hands." Miss Gilling had charge of the musical portion of the service and it was well rendered. Mrs. Arkell kindly entertained His Grace while in Wawanesa, and the editor of our bright little local paper, the Enterprise, published a sketch of the Archbishop's life and the photo of St. John's church.

St. John's Church was nicely decorated and more than crowded. Miss Baragar, our faithful organist, led the singing and we had one of the brightest services ever held in our little church. The Incumbent, whilst the congregation were singing "Onward Christian Soldiers" at Rounthwaite. The Incumbent presented the following for Holy Confirmation: Mr. Marmont, Mr. Wheeler, Mr. Reddick, G. Mahar, R. Mahar, Mrs. Marmont, Miss Barber, Mrs. Wheeler, Miss Marion Baragar, Miss L. Baragar, Miss Mary Mahar, Miss Ethel Barber, Miss E. Godard of Brandon and Miss Sharp and Mr. Sharp of Nesbit. We trust the candidates will remember the spiritual addresses given by His Grace and endeavour to "be faithful, even unto death."

On Thursday Nov. 24th—Thanksgiving Day—the Incumbent preached in St. Matthew's church, Brandon, and assisted in the celebration of Holy Communion. In the evening the Rev. Madam Harding, rector of Brandon, preached in St. John's church, a very helpful sermon.

The man who lives only for himself is engaged in a very small business.

Again Henry Mordeith, of Brandon, has generously remembered our parish—this time it is a handsome carpet for the chancel—THANKS.

There is more help in an ounce of encouragement, than there is in a ton of advice.

Who will help us—we need $1100 to destroy that hateful mortgage, a full set of new altar hangings; a small bell;—more books for our Parish library;—50 new subscribers to Parish Notes; Cocoa matting for the aisle, 20 yards.

"Give and it shall be given to you." is a promise that shows how anxious God is to make us all rich.

OUR Study Table.—"The father who does not put good reading matter into the hands of his children has never done any real praying for their salvation." Every churchman should at once send $1.25, to the young churchman of Milwaukee, Wisconsin, U. S. for "The church in the Prayer book." We are simply delighted with it, it is as interesting as "Robinson Crusoe" was in our school days, and it is written by a layman: 408 pages bound in red and gold.

To invest $1.25 in this book will make the hard times easier. "Church Bell" is a capital monthly, and one we always look forward to.

Next month we will call special attention to Church Books and Magazines.

One cent will send this paper to a friend, try it.

Do you think it is possible for all the churchmen in the parish to attend church on one Sunday, what a hearty service we would have.

EXPENSE clergymen tell us, that regular attendance at all the services of the church, is the best known way of paying church debts. Suppose we try it for a year, fair weather and foul.

WANTED A CHURCH.

WAWANESSA.—Perhaps the greatest need in the Parish is a church building in Wawanesa. The Archbishop laid great stress on this in the address, but what are we to do without help? and people in Ontario and England do not realize what a serious hindrance this is to church work. If only we could raise $400.00 or $500.00 outside the parish, then we could build at once, but we have asked for help in the matter again and again, but all in vain. Twenty-five dollar bills, twenty, 25 notes, and a few dollars and postal orders for $1 or even 50c will soon make up the amount and start the hammers clanging on the new church.

Every dollar in the good man's pocket has the name of God on it.

Mrs. Dransfield is slowly gaining strength. The incumbent begs to thank the many friends who have so kindly inquired after her, and are anxious for her return.

Despite the many prophecies to the contrary, Mr. Burgham has succeeded in striking a copious flow of water without going half as deep as was expected.

A load of wheat was classed here as "rejected" and then sold in Souris at 45 cents a bushel.

Building operations are nearly suspended owing to the cold weather.

The World Over.

Gladstone reached his 84 year on the 29th of Dec. last and he received congratulations from every one of note in the Old Country and all the foreign powers.

The rumour is confirmed that Capt. Wilson was surrounded by the Matables on Dec. 8 and that not a single man of the British force escaped with his life.

Prendergast, who killed Mayor Harrison of Chicago, has been found guilty of murder and the death penalty imposed. A motion for a new trial was made.

Lee, the man who shot Dave Akers at Lethbridge Assn., has been committed for trial.

To be concluded.

The P. and O. Condemned.

VANCOUVER, B. C. Dec. 22.—Singapore advices by the C. P. R. steamer Empress of India, state that Heniker Heaton M. P. for Canterbury, Eng., and an advocate of an interview there declared that the P. & O. Co., shamefully neglected the east, especially the service to China and the Straits settlements. The majority of the vessels trading in these ports, in his opinion, were of a poor and obsolete class and inferior in speed and other respects to vessels trading elsewhere. He expressed wonder that the British government had given them the postal contract between Ceylon and Bombay at a speed of under twelve knots. The annual subsidy paid to the company by the British government is £265,000, which represents interest on more money than the whole P. & O. fleet is worth. Heniker Heaton, thinks the time has arrived for a first class British weekly service between Ceylon and Shanghai, or fifteen knots, to connect with the Kossuth line between Vancouver and Hong Kong. He asks the people are wile when they have to choose from the magnificent Empress steamers of the C. P. R. for passage is one of the obsolete P. & O. steamers. He also expressed his intention of bringing the matter up in parliament when new contracts are called for.

A TRIP THROUGH THE N. W.

Twenty Years ago—A New Year's Dinner in the Rockies.

When H. M. Boundary Commission reached the Rocky Mountains in 1874, and were camped at Fish Lake, within a short distance of that well known landmark Chief Mountain, some members of the staff left, to seek their futures, either by prospecting in the Rockies or by going south to the gold fields of Montana. The writer was amongst those, but he is still seeking his fortune and is seemingly as far off as he was in those happy bygone days, when every thing was "colour de rose" and a ten dollar bill was of no more account than a ten cent piece is to-day.

It was about the first week in September that the boundary commission left our camp at Fish Lake and started on their return journey some 800 miles back to Dufferin on the Red River, most of the members who had left the commission returned as far as Sweet Grass Hills, three batties standing separate and alone and rising to over 5,000 feet above the prairie, here it was expected that we should meet wagons returning us out fresh supply of oats, an articles we no longer required as we had finished our work much sooner than was expected. On arriving at the Hills we found the expected wagons and also the N. W. M. P. who took over the oats for their piled steers. They had left the Red River in the spring or summer and followed four trail to Sweet Grass and thence to this day left Manitoba they no doubt started in the gay paraphernalia of war, there was nothing very gay about them when we had the pleasure of relieving some of their necessities. There have been several wonderful accounts of the gallant march of this corps through a supposed hostile and sparsely inhabited country and the hardships they had to endure, but surely if any credit is to be attached to it, it ought to be given to a body of civilians who crossed to the Rockies, built bridges and left a broad trail behind them, for these gallant warriors to follow and never fired a shot or lost a man on the trip. The desperados who were supposed to be in the country, were of a very mild type, or had left on hearing of our advent. Whoo! up the head quarters of these men has had the honor of returning the first and present member of the Dominion parliament, D. W. Davis Esq., and many of the Whoopers hold good positions to day in the N. W.

After spending a few days at the Hills packing up and saying good bye to comrades and friends we started with the return wagons to Benton some of the officers of the N. W. M. P. going into that town at the same time. Though we had for some time been living on buffalo meat and every man on the commission had shot one at least, it was on our trip to Benton that we saw those magnificent animals in the greatest quantity we had seen them by the tens of thousands and it seems almost impossible that in the short space of five or six years they should have become virtually extinct, but such is a fact. In 1870 there was scarcely a buffalo left. Benton at the head waters of navigation on the Missouri was a typical frontier town, built almost entirely of dobies or sun dried bricks, made from earth and grass mud. A fort housing a company or two of U. S. infantry, and a population of citizens composed principally of gamblers, though of course there was a sprinkling of honest business men. Here we remained a few days and then took stage to Helena, Montana, at that time a flourishing mining town beautifully situated in the foothills of the Rockies. From Benton we came

DANGEROUS AND INTOLERANT.

It is thus that Sir James Grant, the newly elected member of parliament for Ottawa, designates the Protestant Protective Association. And well might he do so. The aims, objects and designs of this association, as well as its methods of action, proclaim it to be not only "dangerous and intolerant," but unpatriotic and subversive of the very principle of the Canadian constitution.

The foregoing and more of the same is from the Review, a Roman Catholic organ at Winnipeg, and why, simply because the Review knows nothing of the P.P.A. Association or toleration itself. The Review was well satisfied when the Catholic schools of the country were not half up to the standard of the Protestant schools, and were on their low standard drawing as much public money as the Protestant schools were, thus through a long whittling bleeding the Protestants of the province.

Now the P.P.A.'s say they want but the one system of schools in this country, and they are right. We are given to the opinion the Public School Act of Manitoba is faulty in some respects, though the principle for the secularization of the schools is sound to the core. In the first place we believe it was a dastardly piece of business for Martin and Greenway to force public schools on the country through fraud and falsehood. Instead of telling the Catholics at Francois Xavier he did not intend to deprive the French of their language and the Catholics of their schools, Martin should have humbly and told them if in power he would submit the matter to the electors, and abolish both if the country expressed itself in favor of the changes. The public schools act too is faulty in confiscating for the public schools, the school properties the Catholics bought and paid for with their own money. It is faulty in the next place, in not fully revising the text books, so that nothing of a Protestant teaching is contained in them. With these changes, however, the Public School Act is what the country wants and what must stand despite all bluster and blunder from interested quarters.

The P.P.A.'s say they desire to see every man enjoy quietly whatever form of religion meets his own convictions, but they object to having the country priest ridden, and for our part we see nothing wrong in this. It is a very commendable thing for Roman Catholics to see their church interests advanced as far as possible, but when the attempt is made to constitute religion an element in politics the principle is simply blamable, believe it who like, and that is the principle that has long held sway in Canada. When in making a Cabinet, a party has to consider this religion and that religion, the move is one calculated to subvert the best interests of the country. For our part we like to see a man like Sir John Thompson in the Federal Cabinet simply because his record is clean and he is one of the ablest men in Canada. On the other hand there is John Costigan also a Cabinet Minister because he represented a certain wing of the Catholic party, who has none too much ability for a councillor in a country township, and certainly never would be a minister if not a Catholic. The P.P.A.'s say select men for all positions according to their abilities, and merits, and their contentions are as sound as they will be. If the Review would only reverse its glass, it might have a different opinion of the P.P.A. Intolerant men there are in the organization as there are in every society of men, but its principles in the main are sound to the core.

SOUTH BRANDON.

We gave space in other columns for a report of the proceedings of the Farmers' Institute, which shows the farmers of that section are awakening to a sense of their duty. In some minor respects, they have gone a little farther than they should have, but in most particulars they have struck the right key. For instance they say it is the "bounden duty of the Government to remedy all their grievances." We fear this is a large a contract for any Government to undertake. There are grievances the farmers have brought upon themselves by their own misdirected speculation and foolishness—one of which is incurring more debt than several farms at fair prices could discharge, and to expect any Government to relieve them from the consequences is absurd. rot. Governments cannot well follow individual troubles, they can only deal with principles affecting bodies. The demand for a change in the exemption laws is fully in harmony with our contentions for the past three years. The present statute is simply a disgrace to the country. Imagine for instance a bullfinch leaving a farmer food for family and cattle on the first of November for two months only—enough to give them a Christmas dinner but starvation on New Year's day. No less than 10 months provisions will never do. There is a complaint against mortgaging exempt chattels, but no Government can meet such a case. Farmers must not be babies. The Government can only exempt property—it cannot step in and save such chattels after the farmer is foolish enough to waive his exemption and mortgage them. The Government might just as well be asked to pay when the farmer should and should not buy and sell chattels. No; an act must be passed conserving to those farmers that have them food for man and beast, and utensils and seed to work his farm; but if he like a child in the face of consequences imperils their safety, the look out must be his.

We fully agree with the demand for cheaper litigation; the costs of simple actions on small claims are, simply outrageous. Why for instance, a counsel fee should be allowed on an undefended suit in a county court is something no one can understand. The facilities opened by which lawyers and court officials can fix their own fees, is class legislation in its worst form. The farmer has got to take for his products whatever prices are offered. The merchants, printers, mechanics, &c., have got to guide their prices by the rulings of the other provinces or submit to competition from the outside; but because distance prevents a patient from sending to Ontario for a doctor for an ailment, or a lawyer to draw a deed, the local lights are permitted under enactments, to fix fees out of all proportion to the charges in other provinces.

Mr. H. C. Graham, M.P.P., was present at that meeting and appeared to acquiesce in all that was said and done, but we venture the opinion it will put no backbone in him—he will shrink like a pricked puffball after moving the amendments suggested by the farmers, when Mr. Sutton points a finger at him to hold his peace. The farmers of the country want to fire all such paper men out of the House as soon as they can get their bellows into action.

The Upper House in Quebec has defeated the Goupart-Yveson measure passed by the Lower House, and the Toronto correspondent of the Winnipeg "Tribune" says "the Liberals are delighted over the trouble of the Quebec Government." Exactly! that is the kind of material the Liberals of Canada are made of. If they could only restore Mercer with his innumerable holdings to office in Quebec, their cup of joy would be more than full. The importance of measures before the country, when introduced by a conservative Government, is never a matter of any moment to them—Grit success is all Liberalism is ever in search of, and for that reason, it can never become a successful party. Through trickery and intrigue it may succeed for a time, but it never can as a permanent.

The Fire Brigade of this city held their annual Reception on New Year's day. The hall was very tastefully decorated with flags, bunting, shades &c., also trophies usually found in a Fireman's Hall.

There was a very large attendance. Some of our citizens thought that Mr. Anderson had converted the hall into a picture and art gallery. The horses were turned out at intervals, and it is surprising the accuracy with which they did their work. The new team purchased last summer are already trained almost to perfection, which reflects great credit on their trainer, Mr. Anderson. Every body went away satisfied. In the evening some of the young people returned to the hall and enjoyed themselves dancing &c till the small hours.

World's Fair by Lime Light.

Davis & Banks gave a very successful entertainment by Lime Light, New Year's eve. Such scenes as the World's Fair, Rock of Ages, Abide with Me were the programme of the evening. Rock of Ages and Abide with Me were the best rendered on the programme. The World's Fair buildings with all the connections made a long and useful pastime by itself, such pictures as the machinery and agricultural Hall, curiosities to every body. The cold storage building was not shown as the views had not arrived in time. On the latter part of the programme, several pictures of the most prominent men of Brandon were shown, such as Mayor McDermid, chief Kirkcaldy, Richards, chief of fire brigade, McMillan city treasurer, also the Hospital and its nurses. The programme was shortened by a dozen of best views on account of noise.

The Carnival.

The opening carnival at the rink took place last Thursday evening, and Messrs. Torrance and McKenzie are to be congratulated on the successful termination. About seventy five were in costume presenting an exceedingly pretty sight as they passed and repassed over the glittering ice. Flower girls, Princesses, Jags, Cigmen, Highlanders, Irish boys, Dudes, Pirates etc. etc. were extensive represented. The city band discoursed sweet music until about 9:30 when the races were announced.

Messrs T. E. Kelly, J. S. Gibson, Dr. McInnis and J. G. Harkness acted as judges and found much difficulty in determining which were to be the costume prize winners. Miss Mabel Fleming robed as "Gipsy Enchantress" secured first honors in the ladies class. Miss Edna Somerville "Wild West Huntress" in the girls. Mr. S. Lowe as a "Knight Templar" by P. T. Barnum's "Prize Crown" in the boys most comic costume. Mr. Harry Patterson as an "Irish Gentleman" carried off the honors. The prizes which have been on view in Fleming's drug store window were articles well worth striving for.

The races were well contested and most interesting. The following are the prize winners:—
Boy's race—1st W. Botting, 2nd J. Delaney.
2 Mile open—1st J. S. Hiam, 2nd W. Frilby.
Lady and Gent—1st Miss McKinnon and J. N. Merritt.

The Summer Death Rate.

The greatest evidence of the dangers of Cholera, Malaria, Diarrhoea, and Dysentery, is the increase in the death rate of all the leading cities during the summer months. Men and women cannot be too careful of their habits of life during the heated terms, and particular attention should be paid to the diet of children. A supply of Perry Davis' Pain Killer should always be at hand, for it is the only medicine that can be relied on at all times as safe, sure and speedy. A teaspoonful will cure any ordinary case but in severe attacks it is occasionally necessary to bathe the sufferer's stomach with the Pain Killer. All reputable druggists have it for sale. 25 cents price per large bottle.
